MAX ROLLITT

Pair of 19th-Century Marine Watercolours by R. C. Hunt

SKU: A02139

DETAILS

A pair of framed 19th-century watercolours of the Scottish yacht 'Galatea' challenging 'Mayflower' in the 1886 America's Cup, and the schooner 'Livonia' off the coast, both signed 'R. C. Hunt', and presenting in matching oak frames.
The 'Livonia' was built by Michael Ratsy of Cowes on the Isle of Wight and competed in the 1871 America's Cup.

DIMENSIONS

Width	57cm (22.5 inches)
Height	46cm (18 inches)

YAVINGTON BARN. LOVINGTON LANE. AVINGTON. HAMPSHIRE. SO21 1DA
T. +44 (0)1962 791124 | www.maxrollitt.com | E. info@maxrollitt.com