

Régence Style Gilt bronze Chandelier

A large and fine gilt bronze six light chandelier in Régence style, 19th century, in the manner of designs by André-Charles Boulle, the baluster stem with masks and acanthus leaves, issuing scrolled arms with further foliage and flowerheads, approximately 101cm high, 94cm wide. For a similar example, see Christie's Paris, 10 December 2000. Later wired, probably adapted from oil.
